Leslie, attached is the contract with PAS. My client needs assurances from your client by 2:00 p.m. today that it will honor releases presented by nurse clients to CNHP authorizing the release of records to PAS and that no records will be destroyed until this matter has been resolved. There is no legal justification for denying this request. 42 C.F.R. does not set a time limit for destruction of the records. If I do not receive assurances by 2.00 p.m. today, I will file a motion for a TRO with respect to the destruction of records and a mandatory preliminary injunction ordering your client to honor the releases. I look forward to hearing from you.
